THIS IS THE PLACE

—a soaring tower where birds were often seen to seek refuge from the elements—a building where students sought refuge from ignorance—a broad expanse of brick covered rooms and halls separated from a busy street by enough green lawn to allow quiet concentration, and yet not removed from the sounds and scenes of a real and thriving city. Memory of this place would fade quickly but for the wonderful people it housed, and the events in which they participated so creditably and warmly.

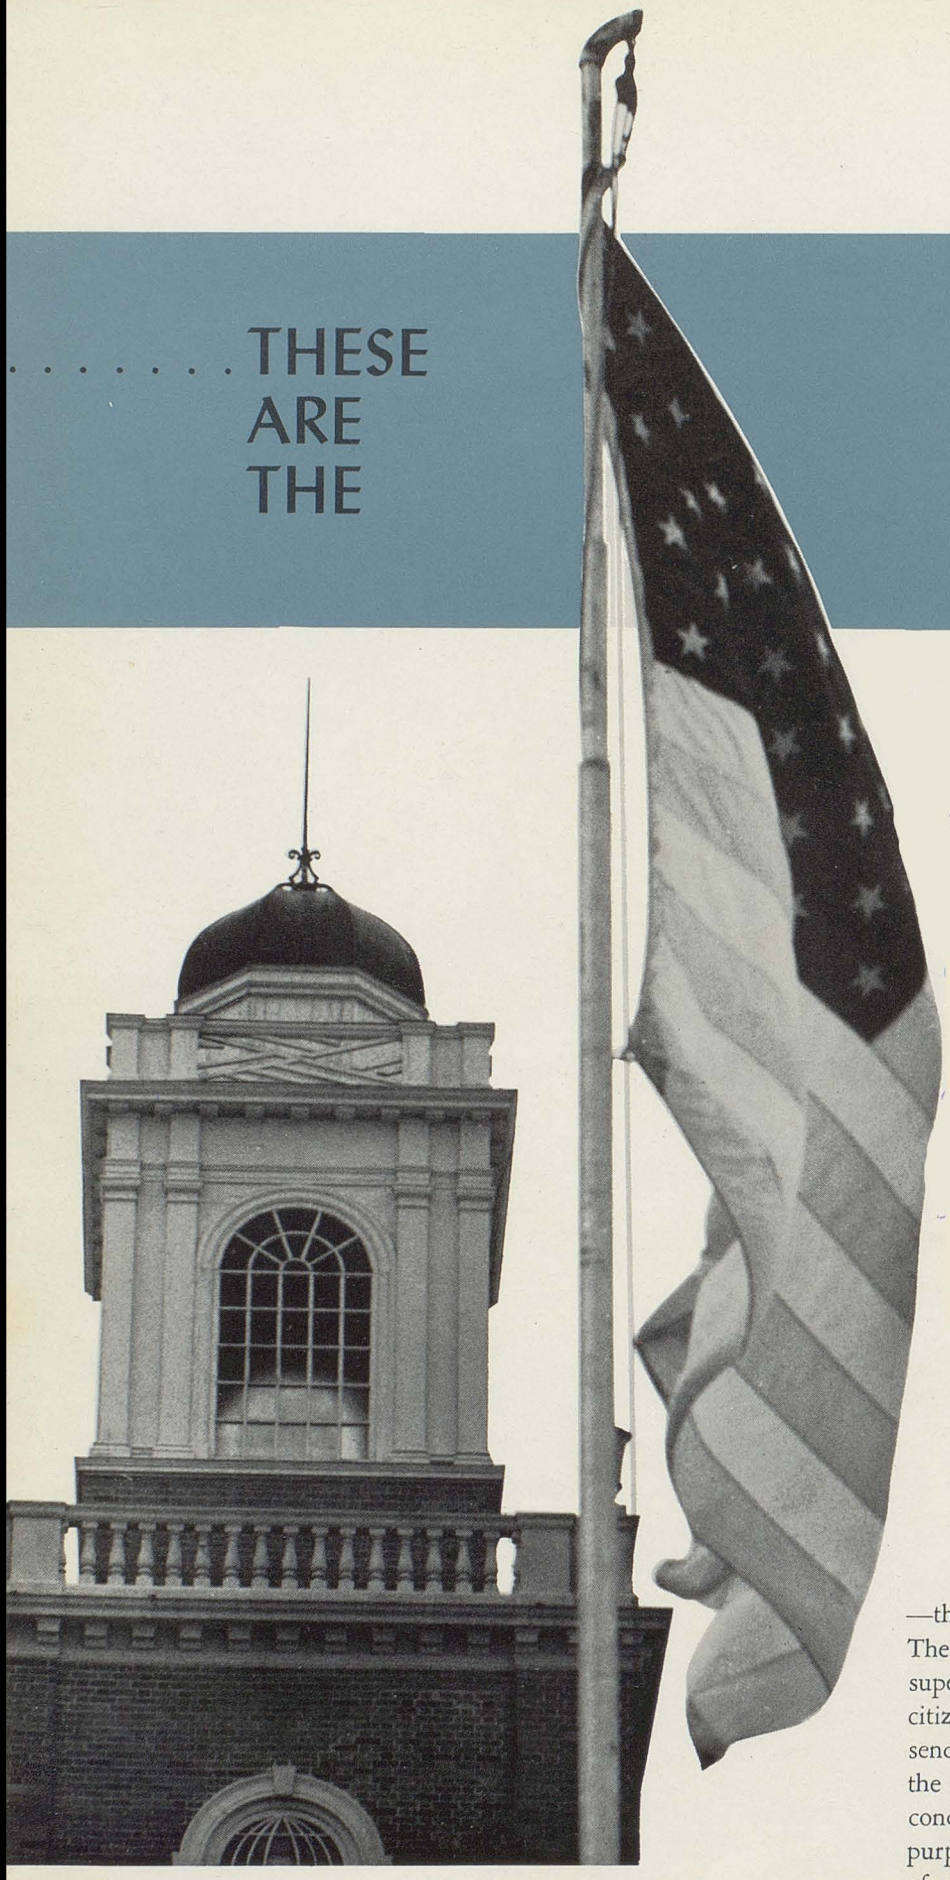

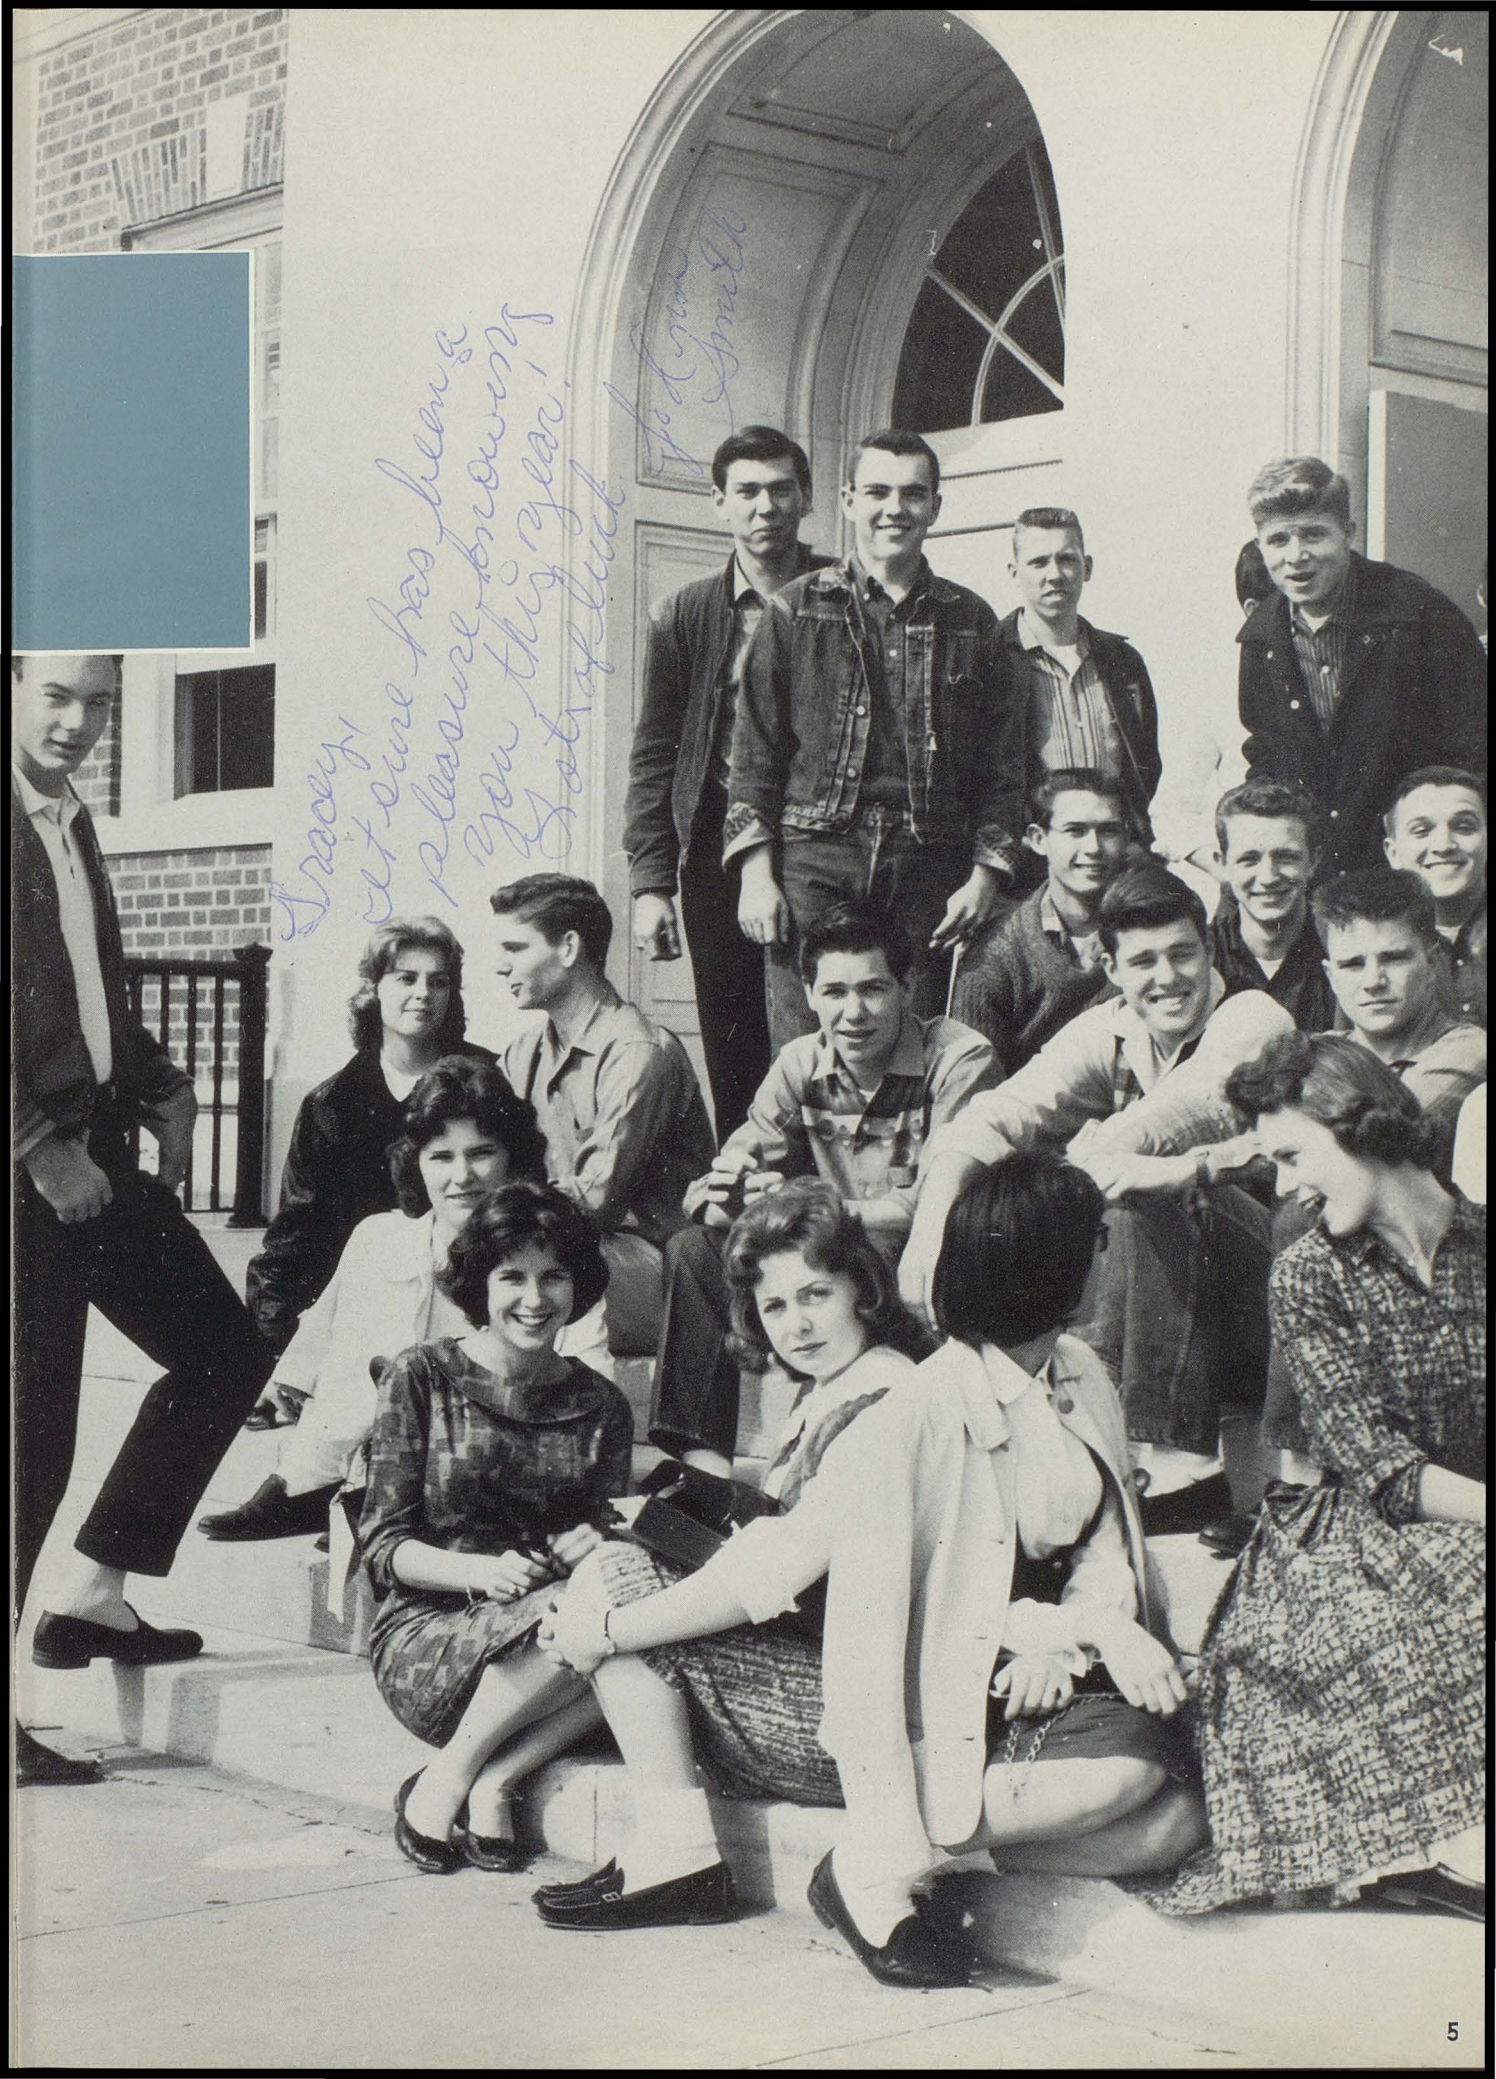

Dear Tracy - 5/1/01

. . . . . THESE ARE THE PEOPLE

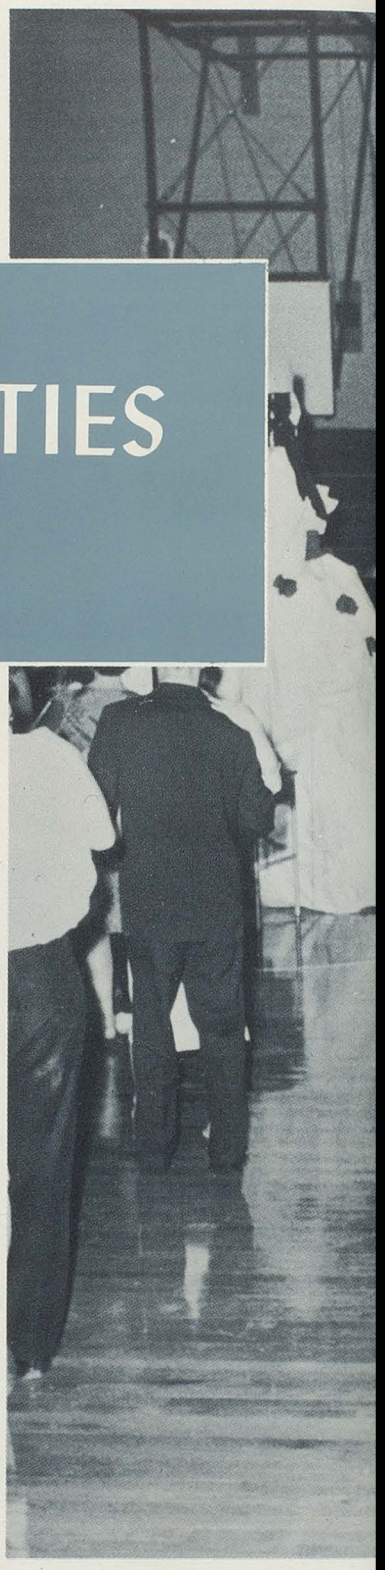

—those who make Fair Park what it is. The administration and faculty who supervise and lead, the parents and citizenry who built and maintain and send to this place their children—and the students, enthusiastic in heart and conduct, yet quiet and determined in purpose—all making Fair Park a place of worthy accomplishment.

Tracey!
It sure has been a pleasure knowing
you this year!
Good luck!
Love,
Lynn

. . . . . THESE ARE THE ACTIVITIES

—born of healthy exuberance and ambition, performed with creative initiative, enjoyed with utmost pleasure by all who participate. There are the dances where the students relax and enjoy being together, the club meetings where projects are planned and carried out, the election campaigns where candidates seek to serve and qualifications are searched by voters, the parades where patriotism and loyalty are stirred. The ideals of the people of Fair Park culminate in its activities and become a part of its tradition.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

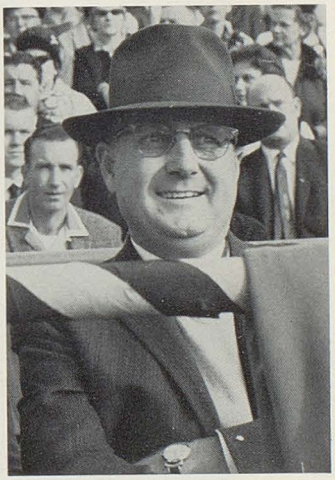

the people who . . .

guided us in our search for knowledge, encouraged us to try again when our efforts were less than successful, and somehow persuaded us to want much for ourselves when ambition lagged.
Those who, with untiring, boundless energy and infinite patience helped us to plan and carry out every activity and project.
Our finest tribute to them—our most humble hope to be everthing they wish us to be.

Tracey,

I have enjoyed knowing you these years. You are very sweet and cute. Best of luck in all you do in life. Love Always,

Jill

Dear Students:

As we near the end of this school year, we can truly say this has been a year of change at Fair Park. Mr. Herron's untimely death in April 1960 and Mr. Turner's leaving to direct a new school have brought about a change in the administration. Because of the opening of a new school, a change in membership came about; our school population dropped from 2000 students to 1650 students; this, of course, was a welcome change to relieve crowded conditions in our physical plant.

It has been gratifying to me as a new principal to experience the manner in which change has been accepted and the complete cooperation given to the administration by both student body and faculty. Without your seriousness of purpose and acceptance of responsibility, this would have been a difficult year indeed.

It is this seriousness of purpose and acceptance of responsibility that make Fair Park the institution that it is. I feel that you are ever changing to set higher standards and better goals for your school. You are learning to face the tasks that lie ahead of you, and as principal I can sense that you are working hard to lay a solid foundation for a better community and a better world.

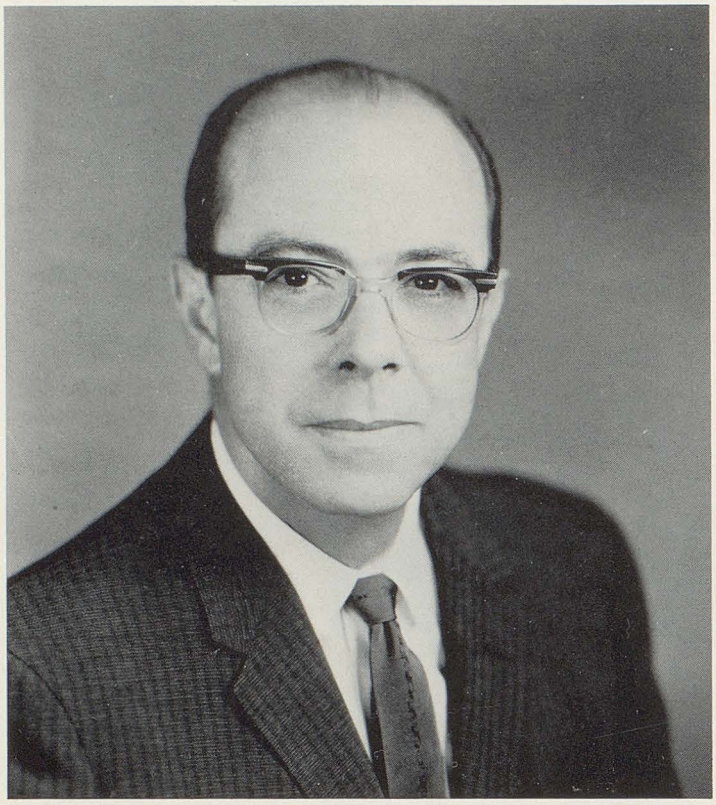

This job of being your principal is one I accept in humbleness and I feel it a great privilege to serve Fair Park. The responsibility is a heavy one, but the reward of satisfaction gained in working with you is great.

To each senior, I give my sincere best wishes that you shall achieve the goals you have set for yourself.

To each underclassman, my wishes are that you have a good and successful career at Fair Park.

Sincerely yours,

Earl A. McKenzie

guidance services are helpful.

With an ultimate goal of student self-evaluation toward planning for the future, the guidance program at Fair Park is a valuable student service.

Individual inventories are obtained through interviews, testing measures, psychological evaluations, observations, information from the classroom, members of family, and neighborhoods.

In combination, this furnishes the student with the necessary material for a self-evaluation—a look at himself and his potential—necessary in planning a future.

Extensive vocational files and college information are available to the student to aid him in choosing a career and making his plans for that career.

"And they seem like real live people" —the surprised comment of an English student on a literature lesson. English literature taught in the senior year becomes a meaningful and entertaining experience as aids such as maps and posters are combined with textbooks and library reading.

Whether preparing for college or a job after graduation, fundamentals of English usage, grammar, spelling, writing, and vocabulary are important to students. Students receive individual help from Mrs. Jones in this senior English class.

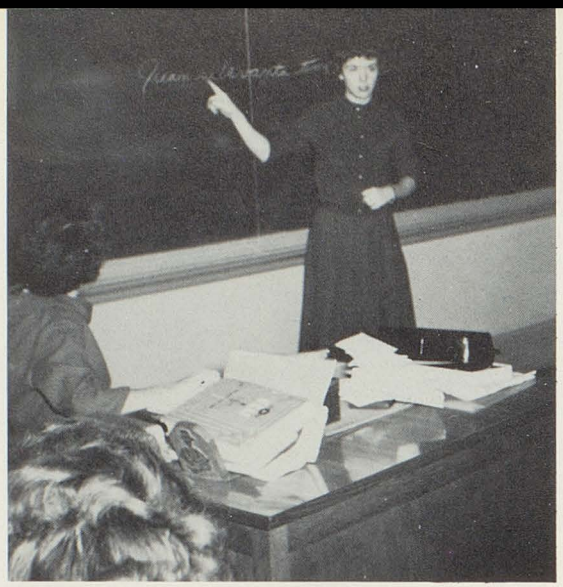

The most fascinating part of any subject is the use and practice of what is being learned. Fair Park's three speech courses give training in the use of body and voice, public speaking, debate, and dramatics. Practical lessons in job application and salesmanship are offered. The third year includes training in voice and diction for platform, radio and television.

Book reports are one of the most pleasant assignments, Sue Doiron discovers.

The case for classics is easily won in a curriculum stressing use of the library for leisure. Reading will not stop with graduation for most of these students.

Gay Bosher explains about a new vocabulary word in Spanish class. Each pupil is encouraged to use the vocabulary words in his everyday conversation.

A poster is made by Latin student, Jamie Bezucha. She shows it to her class and explains the details of importance. Much time is spent on extra projects by these students.

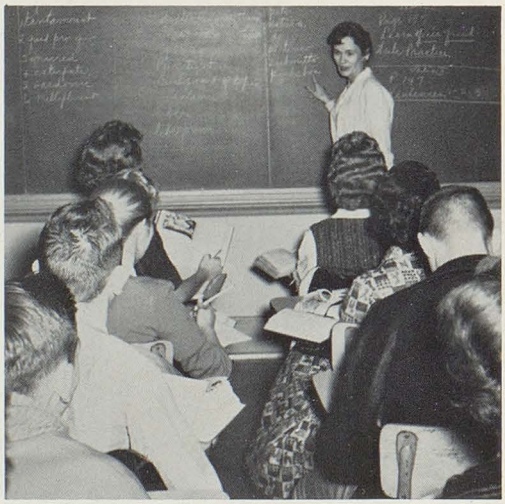

Students of French are guided in their study of the language by interesting bulletin boards prepared for their benefit and encouragement.

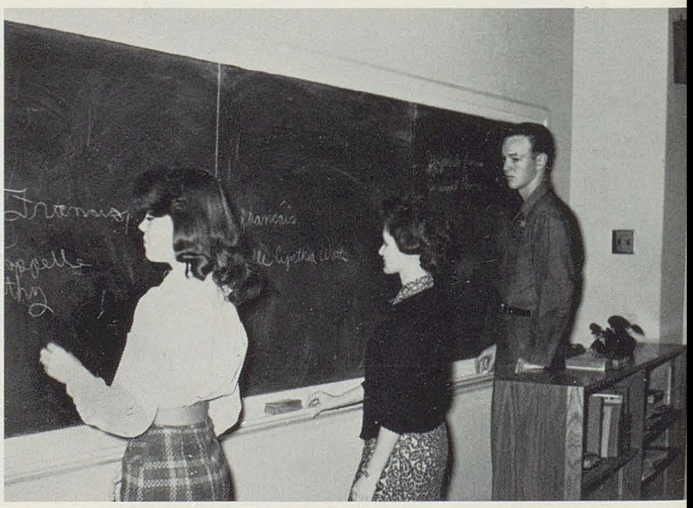

Foreign languages promote understanding of other cultures.

Latin I students, besides learning vocabulary, grammar, derivations, and writing of English sentences, spend some time studying Roman life and culture.

The French class students, Dorothy Ellis, Cynthia Watts, and Ronnie Smith, learn vocabulary, grammar and how to carry on a conversation in French as part of their study.

Linda Swilley spends her study hall working in the library gaining experience, helping her school.

Anything you need to know if you know how to find it—Dot Shaw looks in the card catalog as she learned in library orientation as a sophomore.

Social studies teaches about our world.

A typical world history class retraces the experience of mankind in its most important aspects. They go through the earliest civilization, Greek and Roman civilizations, the beginnings of modern civilization, political, social and industrial revolution to present times.

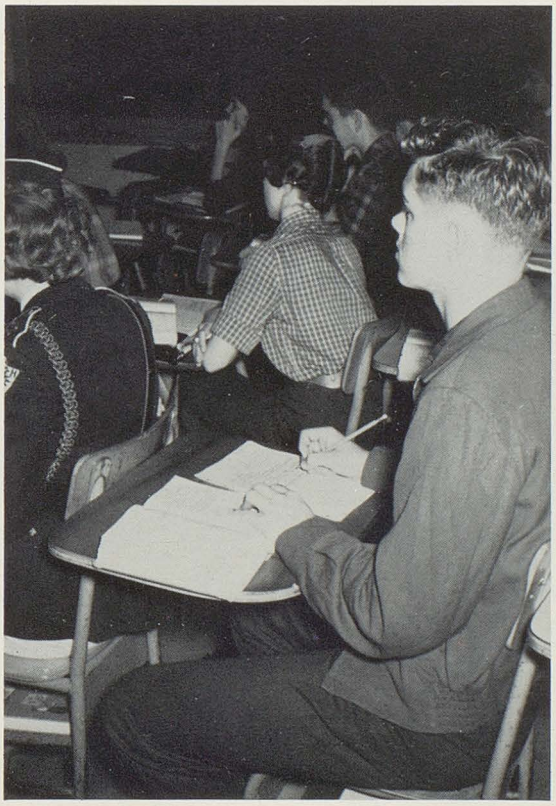

Students work together. Civics, a required course at Fair Park, provides for a study of national, state and local government. Current events are a part of the study of these classes. Students are encouraged to read newspapers and keep up with civic affairs.

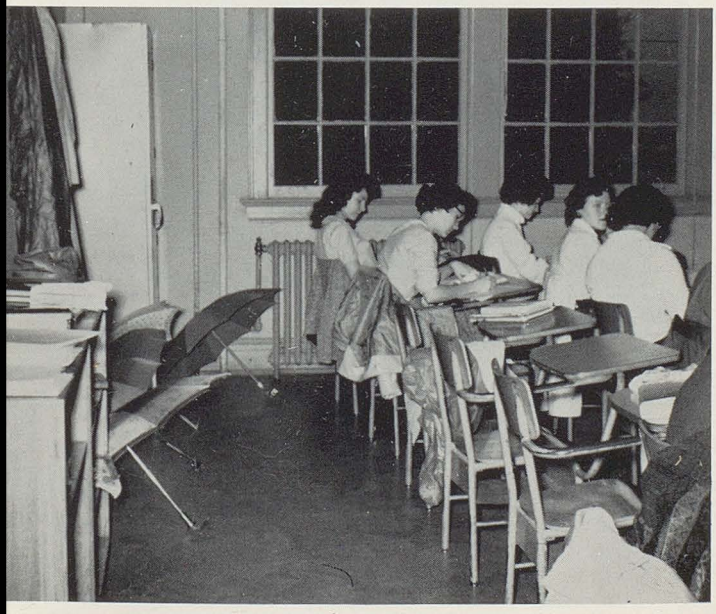

Seniors are required to take American History. It is a survey of our nation's history beginning with a review of Old World events and the American colonization. The study includes the social, economic, and political conditions of the United States throughout its history.

The basic principles involved in man's attempt to make a creative living is the study of economics. Emphasis is placed on the American economy so that the student may understand the business system of the United States.

World geography provides students with training in the techniques of thinking geographically about world problems. Reading maps, interpreting charts, graphs and tables, and understanding illustrations dealing with geographic principles are the basic things learned in this course.

Mr. Day points out a geometrical theory relating to geometrical figures that can be drawn on a flat surface.

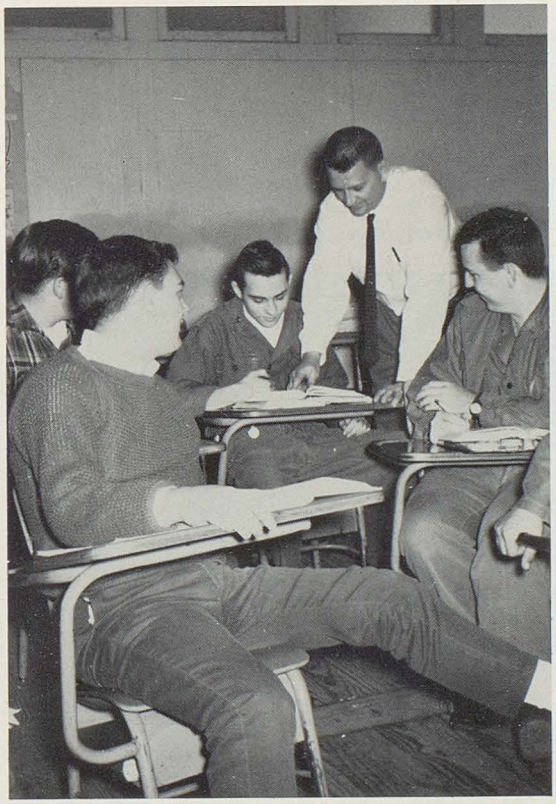

Students who will enter vocational careers in business, shops, and factories may take General Mathematics, Business Mathematics, and Senior Arithmetic. These courses deal with the fundamentals of mathematics used in everyday situations.

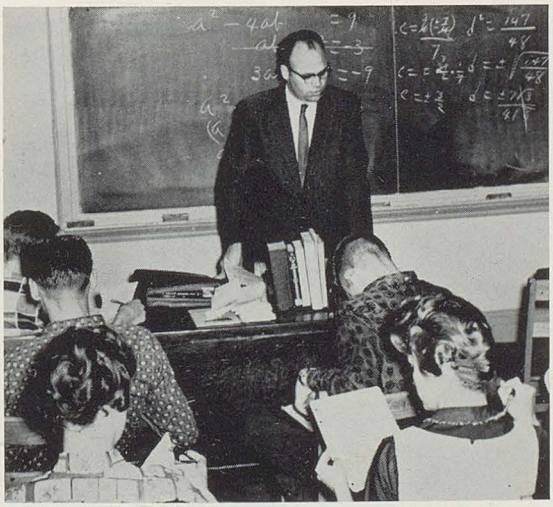

Algebra I and II, Plane and Solid Geometry, and Trigonometry are offered to students planning for college. They learn to use theories and basic equations in solving geometric and written problems.

Mr. Matlock helps a student understand discounts in Business Math. It is a background subject consisting of arithmetic fundamentals used in business situations.

Equations are explained to an Algebra class by Mr. Brantley as they study such things as factoring, quadratic equations, radicals, exponents and logarithms.

"I never knew they looked like that"—excited biology students view for the first time protozoa on the bioscope and step into the wonderful world of discovery.

Special emphasis on the study of the human body in biology classes promotes health, hygiene and safety among the growing, developing group of citizens. Blackboard illustrations, specimens, and aids such as the skeleton speak eloquently of a well-equipped and operated system.

Against a background of an array of scientific equipment used by physics classes, Mr. Weldon points out sound waves on the oscilloscope. Through laboratory work and the solution of problems, concepts of mechanics, heat, sound, light, electricity, and magnetism are taught.

"This really makes sense"— Hank Joiner finds as Mr. McLane points out in an experiment the relation of chemistry to everyday lives. Fair Park's chemistry course is composed of facts, concepts, principles, and laws which control all formation of compounds and life-processes.

"Seeing it makes it easier to understand"— is a fact all Fair Park students have learned as they see numerous films in their classes.

This anonymous, ever-favorite, member of biology classes never ceases to enlighten and amaze students. Marvelle Warren and Butch Smith see a real reason for care of the body.

The serious business of a showing is the concern of this group of art students as Mrs. Gray demonstrates a technique. Students present paintings each year in an interesting hall display revealing developed basic skills in drawing and painting, color, composition, design and sketching.

A triumphant occasion is the completion of a piece of furniture by Franklin Bates under the supervision of Mr. Reeves. Use of hand tools, power tools, reading and following directions, and planning and design are learned in the two woodworking courses offered at Fair Park.

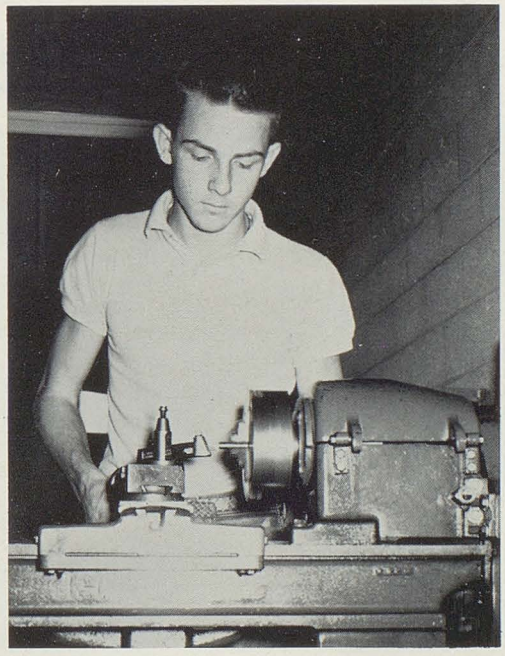

The presses roll in crafts classes as Roger Neal, Joe Williams, and Jimmy Harrison print forms for use in the school. Students set type by hand, as well as print it. Experience in the school print shop may be valuable in courses such as journalism, advertising, and salesmanship.

Carefully, skillfully, David Hague works on a technical drawing in mechanical drawing class. Skills and understanding gained in specialized fields in engineering, architecture, and industry will contribute greatly to a correct choice and efficient performance in a career. Fair Park offers three years in mechanical drawing.

Employment is a certainty after graduation when a trade is learned. Jerry Tisdale competently operates a metal lathe in general metals class as well as learning bench work, sheet metal, art metal, and welding.

For those unable to take part in physical activities, a health course is taught.

At the sounds of trumpets, the 1961 Mardi Gras began. The theme "Deep Purple" was carried out through the dresses of the court who preceded the entrance of the queen in the royal procession. These dresses ranged from deep purple, worn by the Sophomore Ladies, to white which was worn by the Queen, Betty Homan. After the court was seated, entertainment was presented by the Honor Legion who sponsored this event.

The auditorium was lavishly decorated by the art department. To climax the evening's festivities, a dance was held in the gymnasium.

Carole Booth

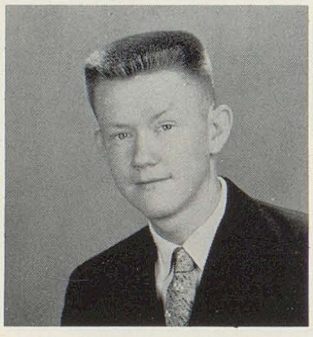

The Fair Park Chapter of the National Honor Society honors students who have achieved excellence in scholarship, who have served their fellow students and school, who have developed and displayed leadership, and who have revealed exemplary character traits.

A student becomes a member of the National Honor Society upon recommendation by the faculty and upon attaining a B average. At an induction ceremony each person is presented his membership card and his pin.

Seniors elected to membership in the Spring are called graduate members. Juniors are active members. Active members elect officers and meet as a group. All organization and all business of the Society are regulated by the Constitution.

As a service organization, the Fair Park National Honor Society has served as ushers for baccalaureate and as diploma carriers for graduation.

Fair Park 32 Marshall 8

The Indians of Fair Park traveled to Marshall, Texas, to open the 1960 football season on a winning note. The homestanding Mavericks were the victims of a 32-8 romp as five Indians broke the goal line barrier.

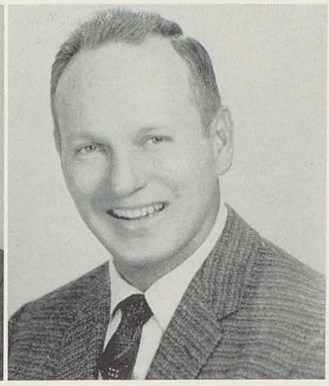

Steve Cryer sprinted 95 yards on one of the season's most spectacular plays for one touchdown, and backfield mates Jack Odom, Charlie Ogletree, and Charlie Maranto duped in one apiece. Donnie Carroll passed to Billy Sneed for the fifth tribe marker and to Jack Odom for an extra point giving Jack 8 points for the night.

Sophomore Frank Neel and Senior David Bass headed a long list of defensive standouts.

Fair Park 0 Bolton 6

The powerful Bolton Bears of Alexandria dealt the Fair Parkers a heartbreaking setback by a 6-0 count.

Anastasio scored the fourth quarter touchdown ruining a perfect night for the Indian defensive who displayed tremendous effort. Bolton's defense slipped once, but it just wasn't in the books for the Tribe to score as Donnie Carroll was stopped inches short of a first down inside the Bear 10 yardline.

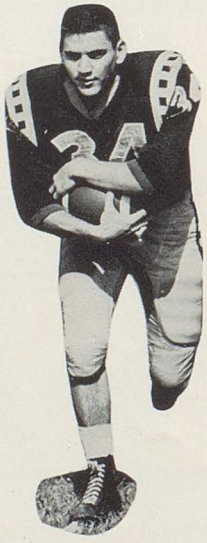

Offensively, Jack Odom was outstanding, gaining 101 yards on 19 carries. Phil Johnson led the defensive charges and played a fine game.

Fair Park 26 Woodlawn 0

Using a two-platoon system on both offense and defense, the Fair Park Indians emerged victorious as the first Fair Park-Woodlawn athletic contest went into the record books, 26-0.

Charlie Maranto, Jack Odom, Donnie Carroll, and Steve Cryer each scored one time to account for all the Tribe's scoring.

The Tribe rolled up an offensive total of 448 yards, 392 rushing and 66 in the air. Odom picked up 103, Charlie Ogletree 91, Cryer 75, and Maranto 43, on six attempts.

The victory was number three for the Indians against one defeat.

Fair Park took advantage of all the breaks and downed the Texarkana Tigers 21-18 in Texarkana. Jack Odom, Sonny Hedges, and Charlie Ogletree, each tallied once and Odom kicked three extra points to edge the Tigers.

Odom gave the Braves their opening TD and a 7-6 lead. A pass from Donnie Carroll, intended for Jay Blazin, was deflected into Odom's open arms. Jack raced to paydirt. Late in the half, Carroll passed to Hedges in the left flat for the second marker. Charlie Ogletree boomed over for the last one in the third quarter.

The ever-powerful Istrouma Indians edged the Fair Park Indians 13-6 in the State Capitol.

With quarterback Dwain Nettles operating the pass-run option to perfection and halfbacks Alvin Ballard and Eddie Poor gaining constantly, the Baton Rouge Tribe dominated the second half.

Fair Park trailed 7-6 at halftime, but couldn't contain Nettles in the second half. Ballard and Poor accounted for the Istrouma scoring on short line plunges. Ballard gained 73 yards and Poor 50. Fullback Caston, picked up 52 more.

Jack Odom galloped 46 yards on a beautiful run for the Fair Parkers. Jack was top ground gainer with 77 yards. Donnie Carroll passed for 137 yards

Odom took ground gaining honors with 146 yards including a 93 yard touchdown sprint.

Fair Park's fourth tally came on a spectacular 73 yard pass play from Donnie Carroll to Jay Blazin.

Tackle Billy Rittenhouse and middleguard Hollis Thompson were big guns in the Tribe's defensive aggregation. Also on the defensive, Dickie Smith stopped the Lions' wide plays cold.

Fair Park 20 Bossier 13

Matching the Bossier Bearkats seven points in the second half, the Indians from Fair Park maintained a seven point halftime lead and notched their second 1-AAA victory 20-13.

With Donnie Carroll launching TD shots to Billy Sneed and Jack Odom and quarterbacking a 198 yard ground game, the Indians offense proved potent enough to down the Kats.

Odom was the leading ground gainer with 104 yards. Steve Cryer added 88 more to the Tribe cause.

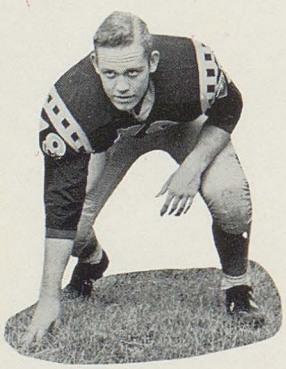

Phil Johnson playing center on offense and linebacker on defense, did a fine job leading the defensive Kat wrecker. David Bass also dealt the Kats plenty of misery from his tackle.

Fair Park 13 Minden 13

The Crimson Tide of Minden, sternly determined for victory, battled the homestanding Tribe to a 13-13 deadlock.

Jack Odom scored both Indian touchdowns, the first on a 4 yard plunge, and the second on a pass play from Donnie Carroll covering 13 yards.

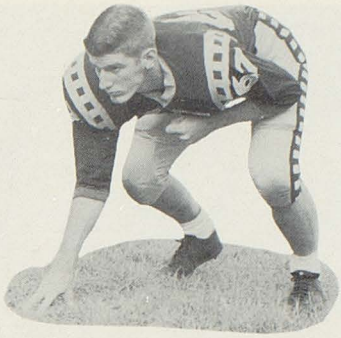

With Odom lamed by a knee injury in the second period, Charlie Ogletree took up the slack with 57 yards gained. Carroll got 111 via the passing route. Although slowed to half speed, Odom came on in the final period to score the tying marker. Jack's PAT attempt fell short leaving the score knotted at 13 all.

Playing without quarterback Donnie Carroll and halfback Jack Odom, the Indians took a 38-13 lashing from the West Monroe Rebels.

West Monroe rolled up 395 total yards as compared to Fair Park's 217, although the Tribe led in first downs 9-7.

Jack Hatcher moved up out of Donnie Carroll's shadow to do a capable job of quarterbacking the Indians. Jerry Lindsay also showed plenty of promise as he gained 62 yards.

Fair Park 0 Byrd 26

The undefeated Byrd Yellow Jackets finished their regular season schedule with a 26-0 Turkey Day victory over the Fair Park Indians. Byrd took the North Louisiana crown but bowed out of the state play-offs to Jesuit, (New Orleans) the eventual State Champions.

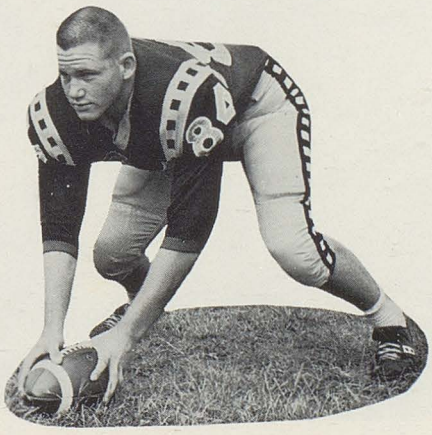

The Indians made an early bid and drove to within inches of a touchdown, but the Byrd line held fast. Jacket quarterback Bookie Shillcut tossed to Caskey for one TD while Dean Mann, Alvin Gore, and Alan Minter each struck paydirt once on this ground. The loss set Fair Park's record as 5-4-2 for the 1960 season.

Indians post winning record.

"It's mine and don't you touch it," says Donnie Carroll to Bastrop defender.

After participating in the State play-offs for the past two years, the Indians had to sit by as crosstown rival Byrd and the Bastrop Rams represented District 1-AAA this year.

The Tribe completed the season with a (19-13) record overall and 4-6 in 1-AAA play.

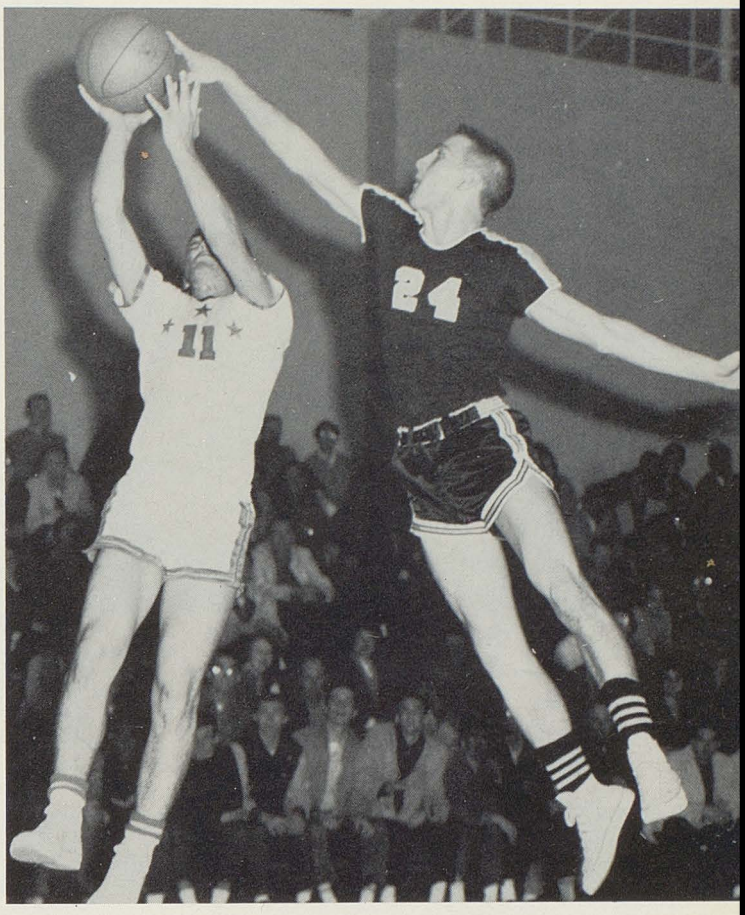

The unpredictable Indians dropped four of their first five contests and then proceeded to win seven in a row. These included impressive victories over Jesuit, Coushatta, and Natchitoches as they copped the Springhill Tournament championship. Also in this string were triumphs over district foes, Bastrop and Ouachita.

Istrouma's Jim Hamilton slides in safe at home in the first play-off game. Istrouma won the contest 7-5.

Powerful Indians bow out of state playoffs to Istrouma.

Coach Milford Andrew's 1960 Indian baseball team, already crowned "City" and "North Louisiana" champions and boasting at 21-4 record, roared into the state play-offs against the Istrouma Indians.

Istrouma traveled to Shreveport for the series opener. Teddy Payne, Istrouma's ace lefty and 1960 "Player of the Year" had to have help from Russ Paterostro to stave off a seventh inning Fair Park rally and pull out a 7-5 victory. Charlie Johnson was tabbed with the loss.

Sammy LaDatto, a blazing fast lefthander allowed only two hits to the lefthanded power hitters of Istrouma and emerged victorious with a 10 inning 5-4 triumph in the second play-off game which was held in Baton Rouge.

Fair Park scored the winning run when Charlie Wilkinson reached base on an error, moved to second on a walk to Paul Labenne, and raced home on Thomas Mitchell's single. Mitchell and LaDatto each got two hits for Fair Park.

Threatening weather and coming darkness set the scene for the third game which would decide who would meet DeLaSalle of New Orleans in the finals for the Louisiana State High School Baseball Championship.

Teddy Payne, undefeated and confident, took the mound for Istrouma. LaDatto getting unbelievably stronger each inning was named to start the second game also.

In the second inning LaDatto poled a 330 foot home run with one on to give Fair Park a 2-0 lead.

Payne obviously still rattled by LaDatto's clout was soundly tatooed for three straight hits in the third frame, a single by Paul Labenne and doubles by Paul Solice and Thomas Mitchell. At this point Istrouma applied stalling tactics. This was to prevent the game from going a full five innings, which would make the game void and another game would have to be played.

Exactly that happened, but feeling unfairness, Fair Park refused to play again after beating Istrouma twice.

Istrouma automatically moved to the State Finals and went on to become the Louisiana State High School Baseball Champions.

BUDDY WORTHINGTON—All-City, second team, (.274) batting average. Senior leftfielder.

RICHARD GROVES—All-City. Batted.(.315). Speedy lead-off man. Played errorless ball for the complete season in centerfield.

THOMAS MITCHELL—Senior rightfielder. Batted (.316). Drove in winning run in second play-off game.

DOUG ROBINSON—Junior, seven hits in 27 at bats for (.259) average. Used mainly in outfield. One homerun.

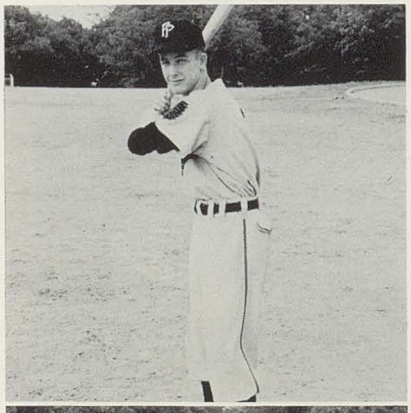

West Monroe's John Moses stretches for the throw as Buddy Worthington sprints for the fag.

Charlie Wilkinson rounds third and heads for home as Jesuit's Bucky Bovenzi waits for the throw.

JIMMY FRAZIER—Sophomore infielder. One of two sophs to make club. Saw action in five contests.

PHIL CARNEY—Reserve catcher, infielder, two year letterman.

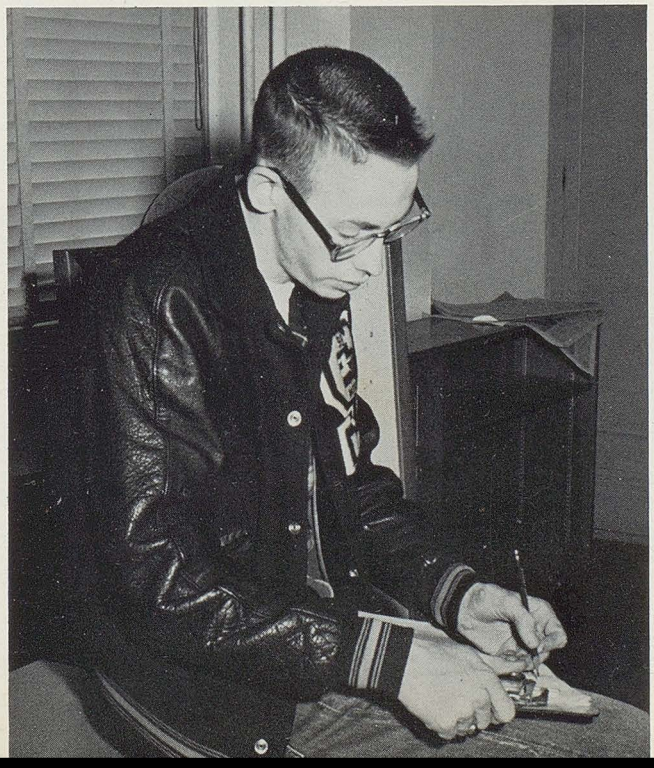

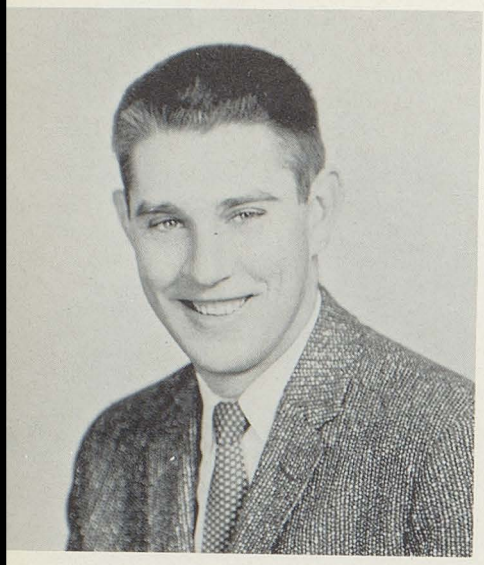

Paul Solice, All-State third baseman, waits for the peg from Phil Jackson to tag out Byrd's Eugene Farr.

FRANK "SPIKE" BRIGHT, during his years at Fair Park has served as manager of each of the sports teams. He is statistician for the baseball and basketball games and Shreveport Times reporter for out-of-town games. "Spike" has also served as Sports Editor for the Pow Wow and Sequoyah. This record is indeed a laudable one.

BILLY SNEED—Junior. Batted (.450) in 20 times to the plate. Started several games at third base.

. . . another issue of student directory

Looking for a phone number? Find it in the student directory, the principal project of the Junior Red Cross.

The Junior Red Cross is the youth membership of the American Red Cross. The meetings and projects are planned and executed by members. The members work to promote understanding and fellowship, to develop leadership, and to increase knowledge. The members, with the guidance of the sponsor, plan and work for service. "We have joined the American Junior Red Cross to help achieve our aims by working together with members everywhere, in our own and other lands."

This year the principal project has been to publish the student directory. Taking orders for the Thanksgiving mums, delivering them, collecting canned goods for needy families, and sponsoring and participating in talent shows at local hospitals are other important service projects.

Looking up a name in the Student Directory, put out by the Junior Red Cross, are members Gary Binderim, Patsy McLeary, and Robert Crittenden.

Membership in Quill and Scroll is earned by work on publications.

The Fair Park chapter of Quill and Scroll was reorganized last year. Named the E. H. Herron Chapter for our late principal, the organization inducted 33 charter members last year.

To become a member of Quill and Scroll, one must have shown outstanding ability in one of the six journalistic organizations at Fair Park. They are: Pow Wow Editorial and Ad Staffs; the Sequoyah Editorial, Ad, and Circulation staffs; and Football Program Ad Staff. Also necessary for membership is a successful meeting of specific qualifications and the approval of the faculty committee governing publications. Quill and Scroll this year elected its first slate of officers and looks to the future as one of Fair Park's leading honor organizations.

Football Program Ad Staff

In order to buy equipment for the Athletic Department of Fair Park, the girls on the Football Program Ad Staff sell football programs at all home games. These girls start working in the summer selling ads for the programs. As soon as the football season starts, they are in front of the stadium selling their finished product.

Co-Managing Editors, Carolyn Brown and Nell Thigpen, assign stories to the first period staff and supervise page make-up.

Sales Managers, Bucky Allen and Carolyn Whittington supervise the selling of the papers.

The Pow Wow Editorial Staff is faced each month with the responsibility of publishing the Pow Wow, official news media of Fair Park.

This year the staff was divided into two periods, with a different set of editors for each class.

Representatives were sent from the paper to Leadership Conference and LSPA. Each member of the staff with 50 column inches to his credit and a creditable average is eligible for Quill and Scroll.

Co-Managing Editors, Dinah Netherton and Charles McBride assign stories to first period staff.

Frank Bright, Sports Editor, keeps everyone up-to-date with the sports news.

Benjai Neely, Art Editor, draws cartoons and illustrations.

Carolyn Baker, Correspondent, types all of the stories in finished form.

Responsibility for the whole staff lies in the hands of these capable officers: Virginia Marshall, Business Manager; Anne Rutherford, Advertising Manager; Toni Ferlito, Co-Manager; Jo Ann Tibbit, Exchange Manager; Lynda Smith, Co-Manager.

Making the dummy layout is an important job in planning the ads for the Pow Wow. Sylvia Foster, Reta McIlwain, Linda Thames, Jeannie White, Robin Bowers, Barbara Moss, and Judy Turnbow work on it diligently.

Co-Managers Lynda Smith and Toni Ferlito instruct the staff members in the art of selling ads. Listening in are Karen Salmon, Jamie Armstrong, Yvonne Cox, Reta McIlwain, Sylvia Foster, Jeannie White, Linda Thames, Robin Bowers, Barbara Moss, and Judy Turnbow.

Pow Wow Ad sales are tops.

A hard task is that of the Pow Wow Advertising Staff, whose job it is to sell ads to help support the school newspaper. Mrs. Pearl Dalton directs the staff with the able assistance of Co-Managers Toni Ferlito and Lynda Smith in handling the many necessary business transactions.

These girls receive priceless training in the art of selling ads as they go from one place of business to another to solicit ads.

Virginia Marshall turns in checks for ads sold, to Mrs. Helen Clemm, office secretary.

During the past year, while most students in their study halls have been busy working on homework, the students pictured here have been working rapidly —scheduling, taking and selecting pictures, planning layouts, writing copy, and working on the design for the cover of the '61 Sequoyah—in order to meet the final deadline.

Each section of the book is assigned to an editor. They in turn assume the responsibility of producing that section with the help and guidance of the sponsor, editor-in-chief, associate editor, and clerks.

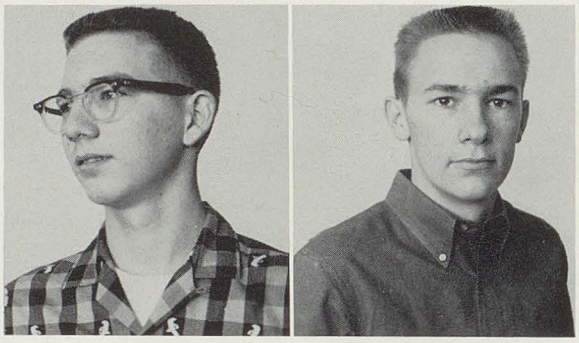

Under the direction of Miss Sammie Banks, these members of the Sequoyah Editorial Staff strive to please the students by making a yearbook that will reflect their year at Fair Park High School.

To make a Sequoyah . . .

April, 1960 — Work begins.

Appointment cards for class pictures are printed, and staff members must address approximately 2000 to be sent to students during summer vacation.

Dear Student,

In order to help your Yearbook Staff we request that you have your picture made on Friday 25 Time 9a-10:00 at Milburne Studios, 3118 Gilbert Street. If you cannot have your picture made at requested time, please call UN 1-0612 for further arrangements. Bring this card and $1.50.

PLEASE WEAR:

Girls Wear: Solid Color Tailored Blouses. [NOT WHITE]
Boys Wear: White Shirt, Suit Coat, Tie. [NO WHITE COATS]
[No Coats, Ties, etc. Furnished]

Your Sequoyah Editors
Fair Park High School

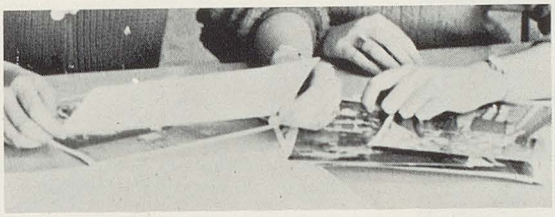

September, 1960 — Class pictures begin to arrive.

These make up the first of three deadlines to be met by the staff. Names, spelling, and classifications are checked cautiously for accuracy.

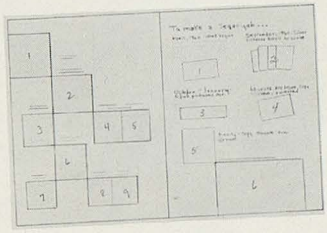

October — January — Club pictures are taken.

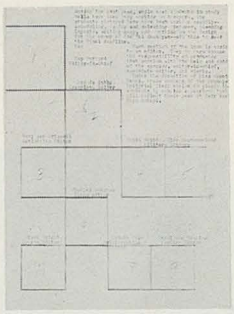

A series of schedules are set for group pictures. Identifications are made so that when the pictures arrive, they can be matched.

Layouts are drawn, copy written, pictures identified.

Each page must be carefully planned in advance with all students identified, copy written, and a place for each picture.

Finally — Copy sheets are drawn to exact specifications. All copy is typed on the sheet and pictures are numbered and inserted in an envelope. A tired but proud staff relaxes because they know the 1961 Sequoyah is on its way.

Sophomore members of the Sequoyah staff, Jill Gates, Jo Carol Ward, and Jeanette Williams take a turn at identifying pictures.

Super-saleswomen serve on Sequoyah Ad Staff

Manager Sue Ellen Wright and Sheryl Reaves get ready to contact a firm about an ad.

A "knack" for selling, along with dependability, courtesy, and tactfulness, are a few qualifications required for membership on the Sequoyah Ad Staff. Sixteen girls compose the 1961 staff, with Sue Ellen Wright as manager and Carolyn Baker and Shirley Baldwin as co-managers. These girls sell advertising space to local business establishments to help defray the expenses of the yearbook and to keep the cost of the book reasonable for the students.

The girls selected for the staff are chosen by Mrs. Daisy Isgett, sponsor, on recommendations of other teachers. They begin selling in September.

The success of the yearbook depends much on the hard work and effort put forth by the Sequoyah Ad Staff.

Left: Yvonne Cox, Carolyn Whittington, Sandra McCormick, and Tanyau Bracey rest after all ads have been sold.

Below: Linda Landrum and Jean Lyons type statements and stuff envelopes to be mailed to advertisers.

Telephone courtesy is developed. Carolyn Baker calls a firm about an ad.

Shirley Baldwin, Co-Manager, writes a deposit slip for the money collected by ads.

Elizabeth Stone, Carole Pruett, and Mary Lynn Tuminello relax while looking up ads in the yearbook. There is a constant necessity for checking for accuracy.

As a beginning part of their work Nancy King, Carole McKneely, and Betty Ponder look up addresses and phone numbers of firms to be contacted.

Tommie Lee Wainwright, Manager, deposits Sequoyah Sales Collections in office with Mrs. Clemm, School Secretary.

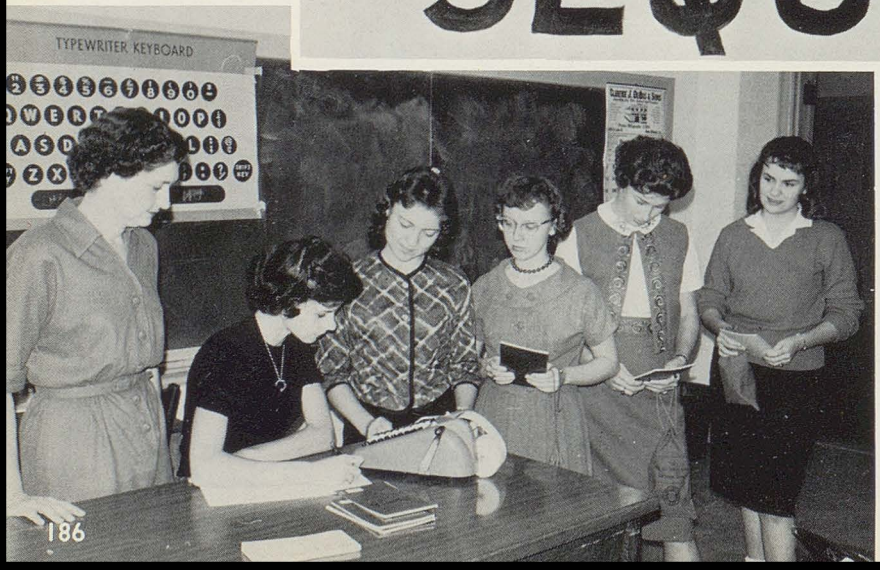

Staff promotes yearbook sales.

Money plays a very important part in the Sequoyah Circulation Staff. In fact, more money passes through their hands in three days, than in any other organization at Fair Park.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Norma Jean Brown, this staff is responsible for taking yearbook orders and delivering them to the students when they arrive from the publishing company in May.

Mrs. Norma Jean Brown, faculty sponsor, and Tommie Lee Wainwright, Manager, check collections made by staff members; Peggy Jean Williamson, Susan Tanner, Linda Terry, and Linda Thomisee.

Mary Lynn Tuminello records percentages of Sequoyah orders on posters.

Sherren Yarberry and Theresa Clemens collect Sequoyah receipts from Senior English Teacher, Mrs. Jennie Jones

Kay Finnelle and Judy Andrews check teacher's receipt books and final collection reports.

Walter C. Minniear
Director

Providing music for the enjoyment and entertainment of students and faculty of Fair Park, the concert band works all year. Under the direction of Mr. Walter C. Minniear, the band has performed at most of the football games, giving interesting half-time performances, and at parades.

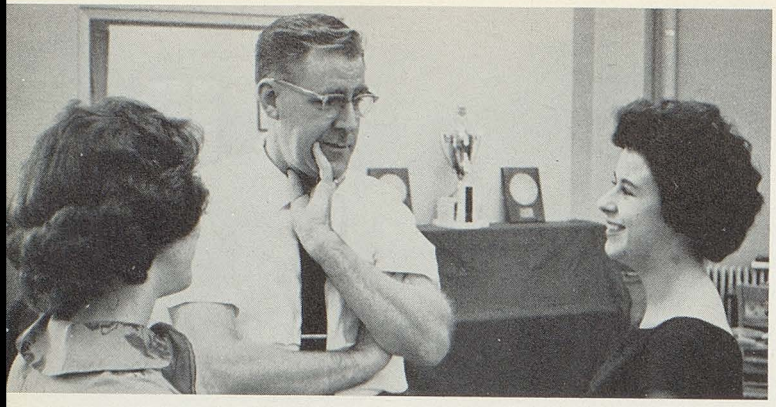

Through the band, members become familiar with and learn to appreciate great music. They present concerts several times each year.

Art Club has exhibit.

Decorations and posters advertising special dates, football games, and dances are made and displayed by this group. Each year brings an art exhibit in the halls for the students' enjoyment. Also during the year, local artists come and give lectures and illustrate their drawings.

FIRST ROW: Peggy Lent, Betty Homan, Audrey Walker, Diana Burns. STANDING: Brenda Dilbeck, Suzanne Allen, Sue Thigpen, Donna Pollard, Brenda Broome, Nell Thigpen.

Leading the Debate Club this year are Jamie Armstrong, Secretary-Treasurer; Peggy Huhn, Vice-President; Don Phelps, President; and Carolyn Baumeister, Reporter.

Club develops good speaking habits.

Twenty-three strong, the Debate Club is officiated by four officers. The purposes and aims of the Debate Club are to understand our world's problems, to speak orally and fluently, and to nourish our quick thinking.

The Fair Park Debate Club has been organized for only two years, and a regular credit course for only one term. It was because of the eager interest of students that the club was ever started. They bind together their ideas and work to organize and uphold its title.

Those involved enjoy debating. Although gathering material regularly and keeping up with current events is time-consuming, everyone enjoys comparing debate notes.

Led by Mr. Dalton Cloud, who takes pride in the organization, the boys and girls strive hard to improve themselves and to gain recognition for the school.

The debate students encounter several trips within the year to the surrounding areas for rallies. At these rallies they debate, are judged, and gain ratings.

With the co-operation of the students at Fair Park the Debate Club may some day expand to a much larger number.

FIRST ROW: Judy Boyd, Barbara Neal, Peggy Shilup, Linda Olive, Gwen Baker, Mary Lynn Tuminello, Terry Smoot. SECOND ROW: Mr. Cloud, Sponsor, Jimmy Hess, Shirley Wicker, Jamie Armstrong, Carolyn Baumeister, Tracey Tanquary, Peggy Huhn, Hershel Womack. Creative Writing Club has an enthusiastic membership.

A small but enthusiastic group of students, under the guidance of Mrs. Jennie Jones, meets twice a month as the Creative Writing Club.

Each person takes an active part in the club, writing essays, poetry and short stories. In return, her literary skills and knowledge are increased considerably.

By no means is this a dull group. A fine program is planned for each meeting by the program chairman and Vice-President Gerelyn Fackrell.

An extra project employed by the Creative Writing Club is the sale of diploma covers each Spring.

FIRST ROW: Dennis Organ and Elaine Bogue, Presidents; Carol Beeman, Vice-President; Ann Lewis, Secretary; Betty Chandler, Treasurer; Betty Garretson, Tribune; Denice Schneider, Program Chairman. Orbis Romanos represented at convention.

Albuquerque, here we come! This was the cry of six Fair Park delegates to the National Convention last August who make this year's club an active and successful one.

Orbis Romanos, the Fair Park Latin Club, is this year under the new sponsorship of Mrs. Ruth Johns. With membership open to all Latin students and students who have taken Latin, this year's club boasts a membership of fifty-one.

The purpose of the club is to increase the knowledge and understanding of the far-reaching influence of the Latin language. Through interesting programs on phases of Latin life, the members gain this objective.

Last year the Latin club of Fair Park hosted the state Junior Classical League Convention. About four hundred delegates from various cities in the state were housed with the help of the student body, and enjoyed a two-day convention in March. At that Convention, Mary Jane Ethridge of Fair Park was selected to be the editor of the state Latin newspaper, the Nuntius Latinus.

TOP—Latin Club Dramatists Mary Jane Ethridge, Bettye Bogue, Meradith Tilbury, Carol Beeman, and Mary Butler model the dress of ancient Rome.

Les Francais de Fair Park

Taking a moment from their duties as officers of the French Club are Carol Ann Hawkins, Betty Jean George, Raymond Pelton, Toi Beard, and Meradith Tilbury.

Notre Club a deux ans. Membership is open to all students who have taken French at Fair Park. The purpose of this organization is to encourage the speaking of the language and to develop an ear for French sounds.

Singing French songs and playing French games are part of a good time at the meetings. Special topics of French culture and civilization are studied. Three interesting speakers from France, Jordan and Hungary were the special guests of the French Club this year.

Pournous tous, les membres du club Les Francais, la devise sera: le francais dans toute la Louisiana, et surtout sur le campus de Fair Park.

"Poco a Poco"

Planning varied activities for the Spanish Club are officers Tanyau Bracey, President; Janis Nallin, Vice-President; Penny Cummings, Secretary. Absent from the picture is Alex Ybanez, Treasurer.

"Poco a Poco" (little by little), is the motto of the Fair Park Spanish Club expressing the progress of learning a foreign language. Happy Students, the club name, is a fitting description of the members.

Getting acquainted with Spanish speaking countries is the main purpose of the Spanish Club.

An annual event of the Spanish Club is attending a local Spanish restaurant where a gala atmosphere is found. After the dinner is served, there is entertainment for all.

One of the projects held this year was the selling of pictures of Fair Park High School. This year the club played "Santa Claus" to the children of a local hospital. The club made candy canes and put red and green bows on them to exemplify the colors of Christmas. A small card was attached to the cane saying from whom it came.

This is the chant of the office workers. But wait a minute! This is exaggerated a little. Of course, they work, but they volunteer to do this job during study hall without academic credit.

In the counselor's office there are students greeting visitors, helping clerical workers, running errands, and filling out various kinds of forms, schedules and bulletins.

In the prinicipal's office there is a student who directs visitors to the right office or person, runs errands, answers the phone, and locates students.

The assistants in Mrs. McDaniel's office also answer the phone, deliver messages, help with the morning reports and a variety of other jobs. The office assistants are on the job every period of the day.

The Visual Aids Club at Fair Park is different from most of the other clubs in that it is independent of specific courses in which members are enrolled. The club is composed of a group of students who either work in the visual aids room during their study hall or students who show films.

Although the Visual Aids Club is a fairly recent organization, it has been very successful.

Students perform unique service.

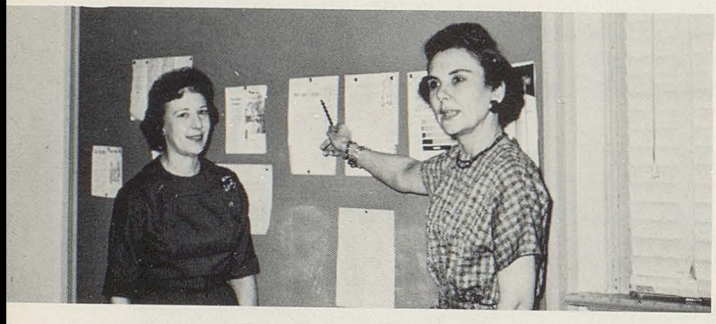

Looking for books? Ask a student librarian! Students who are willing to give up their study period and can maintain a satisfactory academic average are those who serve as student librarians. Future Homemakers work for better tomorrow.

In order to better the homemaking pupils' lives and those of their families, for tomorrow, they must learn to live better today.

This year eight delegates and two sponsors from Fair Park attended the annual F.H.A. State Convention in Alexandria. The club also attended the district meeting at Tech University, and the parish meeting. At these meetings the girls learn how to run the meetings more efficiently and to be more effective.

4-H widens interest in activities.

"I pledge my head to clearer thinking, my heart to greater loyalty, my hands to larger service, my health to better living for my club, my community and my country."

This pledge is carried out by 4-H'ers in doing their duties and their jobs to the best of their ability.

Members may participate in the events of the parish, state and national 4-H Club. Trips to New Orleans, Chicago, and other parts of the United States are offered to those winning an event.

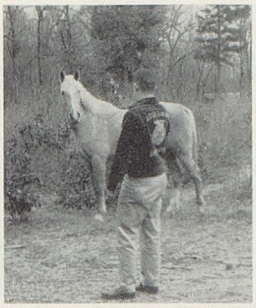

Each year there is an Achievement Day when each 4-H'er comes from the parish to show his work during the past year. There are prizes and awards given at this event.

Glenn Davis, shown with his project in gardening three rows of strawberries.

Welcome, Future Farmers of America to the Fair Park Reservation. As a member of the local FFA Chapter, a boy develops leadership abilities by becoming proficient in parliamentary procedure and public speaking, good citizenship, and patriotism in the future farmers of the country.

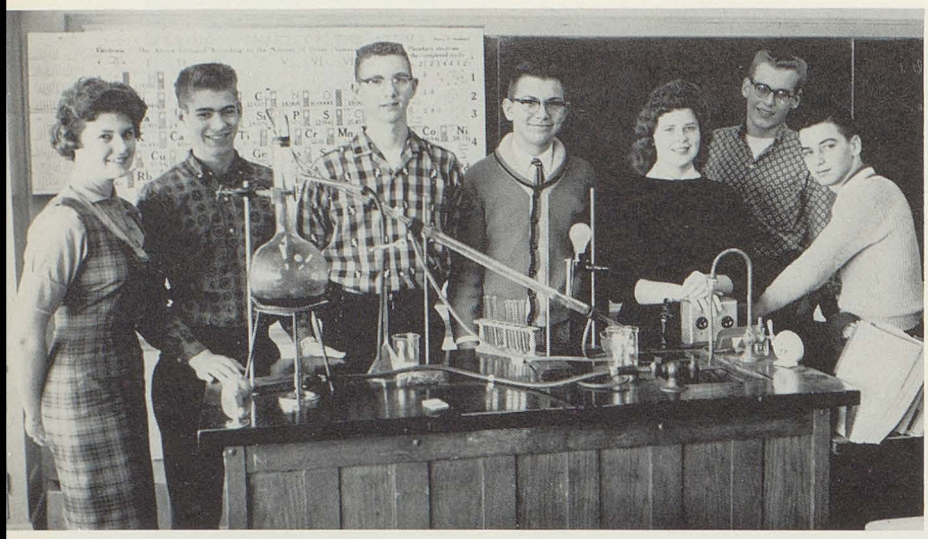

The organization encourages the development of good farming methods and provides opportunities for organized recreation.

The boys enter statewide contests in livestock, crop judging, and parliamentary procedure. Two FFA boys are selected each year to go to the National Convention, which was in Kansas City this year.

F.F.A. encourages future farmers.

Future Scientists of America plan for future.

Viewing a water distillation experiment are officers Nancy King, Librarian; Jere Bush, Historian; Brian Smith, President; Charles Harvey, Vice-President; Robin Bowers, Secretary; Jerone Guinn, Treasurer; and Robert Courtney, Director of Public Relations.

Now, as never before, our nation is faced with the necessity of providing scientifically trained personnel to meet the expanding research technological demands of our society. Within our schools is the necessary potential for our nation—the untapped ability of its youth. The F.S.A. is helping to interest boys and girls in the scientific field.

Not all will be scientists, but an understanding of basic scientific principles will help in all walks of life. The F.S.A. has helped develop interest and has provided a means by which members may study and work under the needed and wanted guidance of our teacher and club sponsor, Mrs. Margaret Guess.

FIRST ROW: Brian Smith, Charles Harvey, Robin Bowers, Jerone Guinn, Robert Courtney, Nancy King, Jere Bush.

"Out to lunch"—at local restaurants is a frequent privilege of Key Club members. The club serves the school as a service organization dedicated to the promotion of better relations between student and teacher, school and community and city.

The Key Club is made up of forty-nine boys with a C+ average or better, and six girls elected as sponsors.

Through the year, the Key Club has benefited the school and community. This year the Key Club has sponsored the Homecoming; acted as monitors in different tests; cleaned and painted the waste cans during cleanup week; and manned the Salvation Army kettles on a Saturday.

The six girls elected to the honor position of sponsor this year are: Jamie Armstrong, Jimmie Dale Baughman, Lynda Robinson, Yvonne Cox, Sue Hennigan, and Jane Jefferson.

Y-Teens are active in Fair Park.

If you like traveling, there is a good reason for joining Y-Teens! Each year these girls have the opportunity to attend two conferences, the Louisiana State Y-Teen conference, and the Mid-South Conference. The latter conference is held at Gulf Park College with delegates from Alabama, Mississippi, Texas and Arkansas, as well as Louisiana.

On the local scene, Y-Teens participate in a combination of service, social, and religious activities. The meetings include worship and other types of interesting programs. The Service and social projects are enough to keep Y-Teens busy.

Out-of-town conventions and local activities all help in developing a poised charming girl who enjoys the life of a Y-Teen.

Middie Craun and Winnie Tew perform a "Two-man front roll."

Winnie Tew practices a back handspring or "flip-flop" with the help of a spotter.

Flip-flops and rolls take over.

Bringing tumbling and gymnastics to Fair Park for the first time this year, sophomores from Midway and Lakeshore make a real contribution.

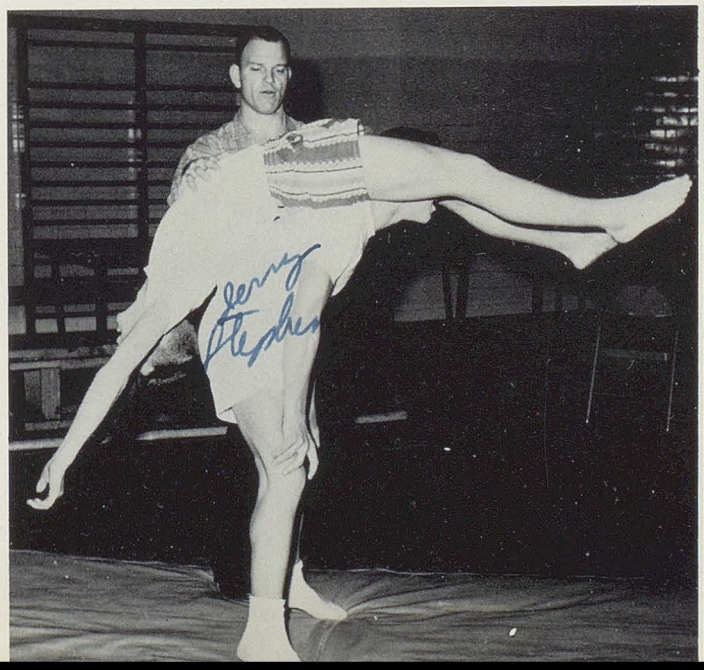

One of the tumblers, Winnie Tew, has earned a medal in trampoline tumbling at the state meet held at Northwestern State College.

Competition and exhibition for this year will be limited to the state meet at Northwestern State College and possibly some spot performances on programs.

Ken Howard spots Ricky Schuler in the air after he is thrown to a back flip by Bill Turner by a foot pitch.

Jerry Stephens throws Tommy Thompson to a back flip with a "neck throw."

Bill Turner holds an "L" balance on the parallel bars as Tommy Thompson observes and spots.

Dixie Drill Platoon Wins at Military Ball

The Drill Team offers an excellent extracurricular activtiy for ROTC cadets. The Drill Team is known throughout the South for its precision marching. This year the team brought home the trophy for the half-time entertainment at the Military Ball.

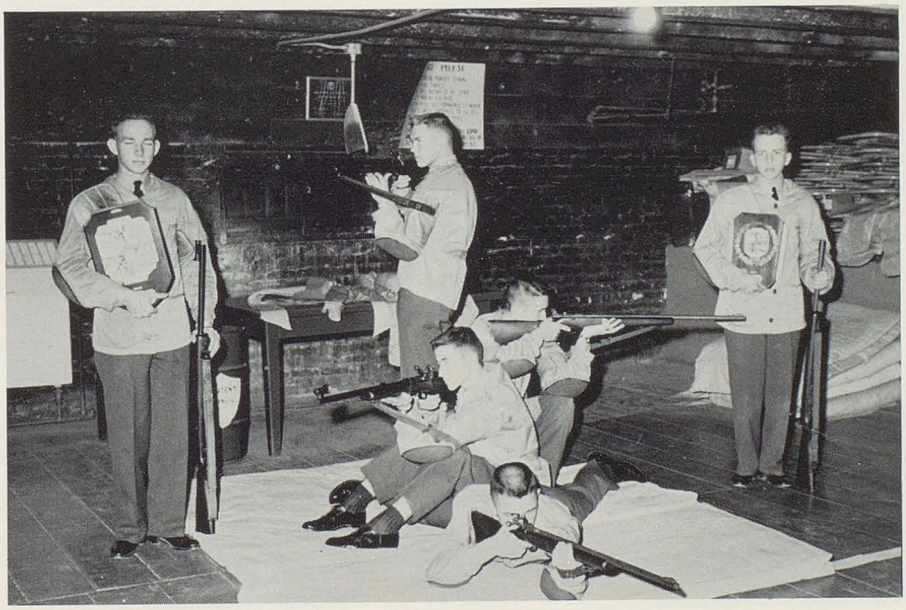

The trips this year include Arlington, Texas, where they compete in the 4th Army Drill competition and San Antonio, Texas, where they march in the Fiesta Flambeau parade.

Rifle Team Member Sets Record

Members of Rifle Team display trophies and demonstrate firing positions.

The Rifle Team competes among other teams from Shreveport, Bossier City and Barksdale. The other teams include Caddo Rifle and Pistol Club, Byrd, Air Force Reserve, Barksdale Air Force Base and Bossier Base.

This year the Rifle Team made competition trips to Johnsville and Arlington, Texas, to fire in the 4th Army five State competition.

This year the team placed 5th in the 4th Army District Mail Match. This year, also, Jerry Freeman set a new record for high score in match firing, 197 out of 200.

We have had loads of fun together during this past year and I sincerely hope we will have a lot more. I think you are a wonderful girl with a even greater personality. Stay as sweet as you are now and you will recieve every thing in life that I know you so well deserve. God Bless and Keep you

Thanks for a very nice year and super staff! Whom I have enjoyed knowing and I hope to see you next year. Lots of Luck

Linda Johnson

Tracey,
I've enjoyed having had you in study room.
Good luck!

a message from your EDITOR

Here it is—your 1961 Sequoyah which we hand to you with pleasure—for that is what our work on it has been—pleasure. Everyone has co-operated so willingly that the task of the editors has been easy. When we reach this last page it is with a feeling of sadness for it means the end of a job that has lasted the whole year. If we have sufficiently covered the highlights of the year to give pleasure to the majority, then all of our efforts have been worthwhile. In this issue of the Sequoyah, our purpose has been to attempt to compose a book that is as modern as our rapidly developing civilization, and yet have it maintain that air of conservatism and lastingness that makes it so dear to all of us.

Our hats go off to our faculty advisors, Miss Sammie Banks of the Editorial staff; Mrs. Daisy Isgett of the Business staff; and Mrs. Norma Jean Brown of the Circulation staff. These wonderful people were always ready with words of encouragement and advice, and without them we would indeed have been lost. For our pictures that mean so much to us we are indebted to Mr. Milburne Alfred and his family. To Mr. Jimmy Cobb for his help we extend our special thanks.

Sequoyah associations will always be a pleasant memory of every editor and so it has been this year. Everyone on the staff has contributed immeasurably and they will long be remembered as "tops." The administrative department of the school headed by Mr. Earl McKenzie has been wonderful in cooperating with us and to them we extend thanks also.

To everyone who has helped in any way we say thanks, for this book is the product of many minds and many hands and without them it would not be what it is—your 1961 Sequoyah!

Kay Burford

Tracy,
As you say, we will both hate to leave Mrs. Henry and Miss Long, but I hope our Teachers will be as good next year.
